• We support our students to understand how critical literacy is to success. We want our students to love literacy and we want our community to help teach them.

• We support our community to learn as much as possible about literacy. We believe that we are a learning community.

• We want our students to achieve the same high level of literacy outcomes as they do numeracy outcomes from the many enterprise and community programs we run.

• We support our students to achieve the best they can by explicitly teaching reading, writing, speaking, listening and spelling.

• We support our students to understand how critical literacy is to success. We want our students to love literacy and we want our community to help teach them.